EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

As a NY Emmy Award-winning producer, with over 12 years in filmmaking and journalism; Paul A. Notice II (Georgetown '09, NYU '11) has produced, directed, or edited projects for a wide scale of artists including: Mykal Kilgore, NIC Kay, Holland Andrews, Cedric Leiba Jr., J. Read, Melanie Charles, Taja Lindley, David Whitwell, Kendra Foster, and Von Middleton. They've also produced work for 651 Arts, MSNBC, OkayAfrica, Roundabout Theater, Red Bull, Re-Entry Rocks, Queer Sex Therapy, LYFT, The Policing & Social Justice Project, Green Thumb Industries, JLUSA, Bustle (Elite Daily), The Legal Aid Society, FACE Africa, OkayPlayer, Fresco News, even successful Kickstarter campaigns, like Harriet Tubman Demon Slayer. It's work that's recently earned them the 2022 Wave Farm Media Arts Assistance Grant, and an Best Short Film of the 2023 Black Film Summit in Chicago for their Directing, Producing, Cinematography and Editing in their Afrofuturist thriller, "Willow." Meanwhile, their nonprofit production company's artist-in-residence program, The Anansi Project, earned the Short List for the Creatives Rebuild New York Artist Employment Grant. For 9 years and counting, Paul stars as Nelson and Antonin Mooncrest, in the award-winning podcast The Once and Future Nerd. They were also the 2022 Jury President of the AD and D Awards, and a proud member of Kappa Alpha Psi.

An earlier 2019 documentary, "Shaw Boyz" earned the 2019 ISA Bronze Award for Best New Web & Media. In the same year, Paul directed the gritty psychedelic ode to Newark, "Everything," for Hip Hop artist J Read - which won the 2019 Audio Shoot Unsigned Festival Award for Best Hip Hop Music Video, and won the 2019 Spotlight Gold Award for their recent documentary, A Wonderful World: a Louis Armstrong. Recently, They've also co-directed and edited, "Release," which won the 13th Annual Fargo-Moorhead Film Festival, while their Director of Photography work helped "Unbroken" win Best Performance in the 2021 Experimental, Dance & Music Film Festival. Later that year, Paul produced, directed and edited the feature film adaptation of an Off-Broadway play, "MIRRORS."

Crafting a good story has always been critical to Paul's career as a producer: whether it's the story of others (documentaries), the stories that never happened (films), the story of sound (music videos), or everything else in between. From their performance in the 2010 GLAAD Award Winning play "She Like Girls" (Working Man's Clothes) and their written work like the Loraine Hansberry Award-Nominated "Leaves, Trees, Forest" (MPAACT), to their most recent NY Emmy Award-Winning documentary, "Broken Windows" (Elite Daily).

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

THE NOTICE FOUNDATION, INC.

July 2017 to Present | New York, NY | Executive Producer

Founded, and led a 501c(3) nonprofit that develops and produces film, documentaries, performing arts, and other creative work from marginalized communities and narratives. Produced, budgeted, filmed, and edited hundreds of video projects for clients from documentaries and films to music videos and online media, including the award-winning BRIC TV show "The Notice Blog." Our regular operation involves: scriptwriting, publishing, journalism, cinematography, live performance production, video editing, film production, podcast publishing, social media management, graphic design, and email marketing campaigns using RSS Feed integration. (For details on past clients, see "Non-Generative Work" section)

As Executive Producer, I manage accounts payable, nonprofit tax preparation, budgeting, scheduling, and production coordination for projects involving more than 20 contractors. My nonprofit work also includes on-boarding vendors/contractors, equipment rentals research, location/venue scouting, drafting contracts, invoicing clients, processing contractor/vendor invoices, sending call sheets, production management, advertising, sales management, donor outreach, and quality control.

Additionally, this position requires expert utilization of the following programs. Adobe Photoshop, Feedburner, Squarespace, Adobe Premiere Pro, Adobe Illustrator, Adobe InDesign, Audacity, Zoom, Adobe Audition, Microsoft Word, Microsoft Excel, Google Adwords, Google Docs, Google AdSense, Google Analytics, and more. Special Programs include:

The Anansi Project

Seeks to foster and support innovation, community-building, and the exploration of experimental storytelling in BIPOC, Queer, Immigrant, and Working Poor artists living in New York. Successful applicants are encouraged to think unconventionally and to take risks in finding new, engaging and empowering ways to express their craft. Commissioned Artists may choose to create a performance, experimental film/film series, documentary, or community-building experience that reflects the values of The Notice Foundation.

- Short List for the Creatives Rebuild New York Artist Employment Grant

The Notice Blog

An experimental postmodern documentary series that combines art, fiction, history, and politics into a psychedelic collage of interviews, deep-dives, and social commentary.

- 2018 BRIC TV Be Free Award Winner for Outstanding Program Feature / Segment

The Willow Project

Focuses on hiring BIPOC folx behind the camera, as well as in front of the camera, requiring that the production hire 90% BIPOC folx, hire locally, work safely (according to SAG-AFTRA safety guidelines), and to host an ongoing series of panel discussions and workshops for BIPOC/Queer/Marginalized folx in media. And that's not just through furthering representation of BIPOC in "White spaces," but by continuing to encourage their employment in positions of power throughout the entire filmmaking process.

TNB Studios

Offering affordable video production to marginalized clients and marginalized narratives. This ongoing project seeks to expand access to high-quality, award-winning video production and editing to BIPOC/Queer/Immigrant businesses and activist groups & narratives. As a result, we're adding equity back into the film industry for underprivileged/distressed people, as well as helping eliminate prejudice and discrimination in the film industry.
